FIRE LOSS OF $300,000. Ryan Hotel Annex and Schutte Block at St. Paul Burned.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 19 .- A very destructive fire started at 2:12 o'clock this morning in Cardozo's furniture store, in the Ryan Hotel annex, on Seventh, between Robert and Jackson streets, and despite the efforts of the firemen spread rapidly. The Ryan annex was almost destroyed and also the Schutte block. The Ryan Hotel, which was in the block, was not damaged. The total loss will be $300,000. The Schutte building was occupied by the Northern Exchange Bank and a large number of doctors, the Prudential Life Insurance Company, Twin City Printing Company and the United States recruiting offices. Among the notable losses in the Schutte block was that of J. V. Brower. His entire collection of historical, archaeological and geological material was completely destroyed. It represented the work of thirty years, and Mr. resented the work of thirty years, and Mr. Brower valued it at $8,000. During the fire Minister Quinby, as A'me Hague, supplied the engine room at the rear of the Ryan the Department of State with a translablock fell, precipitating several firemen to tion of the decree covering this subject, on the end of his spine and was seriously | there of the South African Republic, and hurt. Twenty Buildings Burned.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.-Fire at Elizabeth, N. J., to-day destroyed twenty buildings, entailing a loss of $200,000. McManus Bros., furniture dealers, occupied six stores on First street. Among other Christmas displays in one of their show windows was a In a moment the store was ablaze, and the shoppers were compelled to make a hur- already in the republic ried exit. In a short time the entire buildquickly to the adjoining and opposite buildings. The fire was not got under control until it had burned the entire block on First street between East Jersey and Livingston streets. It had burned fiercely from 3 o'clock p. m. until about 9 o'clock. The Chancellor Hotel was destroyed, the loss being $6,000; Odd Fellows' Hall was dammates his loss at over $100,000. The Mcabout $75,000 on stock and building, with Edison, it is stated by counsel for the Three People Burned. CLEVELAND, Dec. 19 .- Mr. and Mrs. Aelo, living at Sheffield, O., were awakened about 3 o'clock this morning by neighbors and informed that their house was in flames. Both got out of the burning building, but went back to rescue their grandchild, which lived with them. The floors fell in and the three were precipitated into the cellar and burned to death.

Close of St. Vincent's Fair. St. Vincent's fair ended last night after an exceedingly prosperous week. Last night there was a more determined effort

than at any other time to make the fair a financial success, and the young ladies and men who have striven hard for a whole week redoubled their efforts. At nearly every booth the entire stock was cleaned out. What few articles remained were sold at auction, bringing good prices. The voting for favorite pastors closed at 10:30 him was 399. Father Chatrand came next awarded to Father Gavisk. Late last night John H. McMorrow, chair- near Chemnitz exports knitting needles man of the fair committee, had not footed | regularly to Great Britain. Twelve years up the accounts, so that the total receipts | ago the proprietor's son served his time in of the fair could not be obtained. It is a Nottingham needle mill. believed, however, they will run about four thousand dollars. Approximate estimates were given by some of the booths: Mrs. Henry Lawrence, of the doll booth, said they had taken in about $450; Mrs. C. C. Hatfield thought the country store's receipts were close on to $600; flower booth, $150. Others in charge of different booths were unable to estmate their receipts. Much interest was taken in the doll raffle last night Mrs. Henry Lawrence, who was in charge of that booth, said the receipts on the doll of Ruth Hodges, daughter of Dr. Hodges, who was too ill to attend the fair, were over $20. Her doll was won by L. W. Louis. Other dolls were won won by L. W. Louis. Other dons were won as follows: Harrison doll, by Loretta Gramling; bride and groom doll, by M. McManus; Taggart doll, by Mr. Edwards, in the postoffice; Miss Maus's doll, by Thomas Clark: Mrs. John Brosnan's by D. W. Finn; Miss Turner's, by George O'Con-It was midnight before the crowd began to disperse. In a day or two Mr. McMor-rey will call the committee together to make a final report. At that time the question of holding a fair next year will be discussed. Objected to Watch Buying.

William Hudson, colored, of 30 Hosbrook street, was arrested last night on a charge of drawing a deadly weapon. He has been employed at the rolling mill, but when that closed down he was without employment and his wife has since been making the living by washing. Yesterday morning a man who wanted to sell his wife a watch called at the house, and Hudson objected to his presence. Later in the day Mrs. Hudson secured her husband's arrest. She said her husband had drawn a revolver and threat-ened to kill her. The officers who made the arrest found the pistol lying on the bed.

IN HIS FATHER'S SEAT

MEMBER OF THE HOUSE.

Urgent Deficiency Bill Passed and $130,000 Voted to the Tennessee Centennial Exposition.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.-The House today adopted a special order for taking up the Pacific railroad funding bill on Jan. 7 and for a debate of four-days. Consideration of the Loud bill relating to secondin the Dillon-street M. P. Church from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m., Monday, Dec. 21. The fun cal services will be conducted at the above named church class mail was set for Jan. 5 and 6, with a final vote on the 6th. The day was given to appropriation bilis, the urgent deficiency being passed and the legislative, executive and judicial advanced to completion, save the items relating to the congressional library and the Civil-service Commission.

Charles R. Crisp, of Georgia, son and successor of the late ex-Speaker Crisp, was sworn in as a member of the House when the session opened. A letter from Governor Atkinson, of Georgia, stated that Mr. Crisp had been chosen at the special election held on the 16th inst. Mr. Dingley called attention to the fact that the letter was not in the usual form of credentials, but he readily yielded to the request of Mr. Turner that unanimous consent be given for administering the oath to Mr. Crisp, who was greeted with hearty applause as he took his seat at the desk formerly occupied by his father.

Mr. Cannon reported from the committee on appropriations an urgent deficiency bill, carrying $881,862, and it was given immediate consideration. The main item was $700,000 for the completion of naval vessels on the stocks and in ordinary and for other naval purposes. Mr. Cannon explained briefly the desirability of urging the work on the ships to completion. The bill was then passed without division.

Mr. McMillin called up the Senate bill for government participation in the Tennessee centennial exposition, to be held next year at Nashville, Tenn. The measure carries $100,000 for a government exhibit agents: generator, $4; 160 per cent. profit; cooks for 1 cent per hour; wonderful; simple, cheap, lasting. Full description free. MONEY—To loan on Indiana farms. Lowest Vermontand Pennsylvania streets. Rev. Joseph A. Milburn, pastor; Rev. Edward Baech, associate pastor. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. ate pastor. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Young People's Christian Endeavor, 6:45 p. would take a turn in holding expositions. Mr. Dingley pointed out that the only justification for government aid was that the exposition was national and international and he deprecated federal aid to purely state expositions. The Tennessee members rallied to the support of the measure, pointing out the prospects of the enterprise. Mr. McMillin held up views of the buildings. On the passage of the bill the House divided-127 to 25-and Mr. Bailey made the point of no quorum. The Speaker counted a quorum and the bill was passed by the foregoing vote. When Mr. Henderson presented the resolution to give four days, beginning Thurs. day, Jan. 7, to consideration of the Pacific Railroad funding bill he urged the necessity for congressional action on the Pacific Railroad question to protect the government's interests. In reply to a question from Mr. Dockery he said that the rule would give the House opportunity to vote on substitutes or amendments to the bill. Mr. Maguire spoke against the rule and the bill in general, declaring that the government had ample remedy against the Pacific roads by foreclosure. Saturday, Jan. 16, was fixed for eulogies on the late ex-Speaker Crisp. At 5:10 the House adjourned.

The American Graphophone Company, on the other hand, admits the validity of patents for various improvements which Edison has taken out since the issue of the graphophone patents, and consents to decrees in favor of Edison on those patents. The entering of the decree has been followed by an exchange of licenses between the par-ties and a satisfactory adjustment of all other differences.

How Germans Steal Trade. WASHINGTON. Dec. 19 .- "Needles are small things," says United States Consul Monoghan, at Chemnitz, "but they play a very important part in Germany's exports and she manages to sell them in vast quantities to every country in the world, including even the United States and England."
Mr. Monoghan cites this as a notable example of how Germany is driving England out of her markets. First she sent clever workmen to England to work in the faco'clock with Father Gavisk, of St. John's tories and learn the trade secrets, then Church, in the lead. The total vote for they returned and imparted these secrets to their employers. As a result they now him was 399. Father Chatrand came next make needles as good as England's best with 315 votes. The gold-headed cane was and make them much cheaper; so cheap that England herself buys them. A place

The Innugural Ball. WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 .- The general inaugural committee, which is charged with all arrangements for the inauguration of night and finally disposed of a matter which has agitated the citizens of the District very much of late, by selecting the pension office building as the place for the grand inaugural ball. People of an aesthetic turn of mind were apprehensive that the beautiful and still incomplete new library building was to be used for this pur-pose, but when Mr. Hanna withdrew his suggestion to that effect the ball was easily set for the pension building court, which has before served a like purpose. The general committee at to-night's meeting also selected a full list of subcommittees to take charge of all the details of the approaching ceremony.

Death of W. H. Hart's Daughter. Word was received from Frankfort yesterday of the death of Eugenia Hart, only daughter of W. H. Hart, deputy auditor of state. Her death followed an illness of two weeks, beginning with congestion of the lungs and ending with pneumonia. Her death is a severe blow to her father, to whom she was housekeeper and companion as well as only child. She was a bright and intelligent girl of twenty-one, and had the faculty of making friends in large numbers wherever she went. The funeral will be held at Frankfort next Monday morning, and will be attended by nearly all the State

A PECULIAR CASE. Mrs. Fowler, No. 40 Springfield street, lately moved to 17 Douglass street, says: business. Had to give it up. I spent $2,000 about all I had. Business gone, money gone, health gone. I was in despair, Thought I would lose my mind. My nerves, stomach and lungs were in an awful condition. Have tried ten of the best doctors I could select. They all said my case was a peculiar one and they could do me no good. They told me that one of my lungs was gone. I nearly choked to death with coughing spells. The neighbors came in several different times, thinking I was dying. No one expected me to live. I was confined to bed most of the time since last

"I called in one of the Munyon doctors, after everybody, doctors and all, had given me up. He told me what to do, and said I would be up in less than a month. I began to get better and am now up and able to go out of doors. Have been to Munyon's office several times. My cough is entirely gone. Am now enjoying life again; am gaining in flesh and I feel again like life is worth living. My friends say that they can hardly realize that I am up and out. Indeed. I can hardly realize myself the wonderful change in my condition that has taken place in the four weeks that the Munyon doctor has treated me, but God knows I am thankful."
